THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA®
Physical Space Inventory
Fall, 2006

OVERVIEW

The University of Arizona experienced a total growth of 283,757 gross square feet (146,353 net assignable square feet) during the course of the fiscal year 06. Major sources of growth include the completion of three major buildings located on the University's main campus: Chemical Sciences (87,944 GSF); Meinel Optical Sciences West Building Expansion (53,946 GSF); and Roy P. Drachman Hall (114,093 GSF). The completion of three buildings housing the College of Medicine's Phoenix Campus (85,302 GSF) provided a major source of growth off campus. Decreases in space include the demolition of the Franklin Building (39,933 GSF), for the future site of McClelland Park, and reductions in temporary and off campus space from the termination of a number of leased facilities due to College of Public Health's relocation to Drachman Hall.

The University experienced an increase in research space on main campus, primarily due to the new Chemical Sciences Building. In spite of the major increases in research space, this category continues to be the largest space deficit on campus.

Substantial growth in the "Department Administration" program classification was due to the majority of Drachman Hall's space being assigned to the Colleges of Pharmacy and Public Health's administration, including much of the unoccupied space.
